

Quality of our personnel is reflected by our success. We are committed to investing in the development and support of our personnel. We believe that our people are our strength. We always look for people with strong technical and academic backgrounds, complimented by leadership skills, to join our team.

Career with MED DEVICES offers rewarding opportunities to help companies around the world, develop products that are used safely by millions of people every day. You can combine technological and business achievement with contributions to society in a way that few other employers can offer.

We serve a variety of clients across many industries, so by working in MED DEVICES you will have many opportunities for international work experience. Training and job exchange programmes are a basic part of our organization and form an important piece of our personal and professional career development. Even if you stay in any location, you will have contact with many cultures and work with challenging international clients.

Customer Focus

Through our industry knowledge, experience and technical expertise, we add value to our customer's products, enhance their processes, and increase their competitive advantage. Our goal is to develop innovative solutions that facilitate our customer's success in the global marketplace and, most important, build consumer confidence in their products and services.

Training and Development

We encourage employees to grow their skills through structured career development and training so that they can enhance their personal and professional growth and development.

Diversity

We are a diverse company of many worker around the world. We derive competitive strength from our employees' cultural values and relationships within the communities in they live and work. Our commitment is to honor the individual strengths of all employees and help them reach their potential.

