

MED DEVICES quality focused approach commands continuous innovation and flexibility at investigative sites. The MED DEVICES expert team creates a customized site management programme for the successful delivery of the smallest of studies through to large complexed studies involving multiple sites with specific needs.

MED DEVICES research has strong and established relationships with its investigative sites across India and the company's close interaction with health and delivery processes enables new insights and solutions, practical support, site specific planning and the realization of site specific goals.

Site management services include:

- Investigator recruitment, including development of project-specific questionnaires
- Planning and co-ordination of investigator meetings
- Collection and continued review of site regulatory documents
- Development of informed consent template
- Development of study-specific tools
- Ensuring regulatory and protocol compliance by facilitating monitoring visits, including:
- Qualifying site assessments
- Initiation visits
- Interim monitoring visits
- Close-out visits
- 100% source documentation of trial data

